

"Union of Souls" Note in Diary of Slain Husband

Rosier Wrote of "Kiss Complete" to Stenographer Who Died With Him.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—On a crumpled page in the diary of Oscar Rosier, advertising man, whose widow has been held for a coroner's inquest on a charge of having slain Rosier and his stenographer Saturday in his private office, were several lines addressed "To Jerry From O. R." The lines were:

"The kiss complete. The union of souls. Heart to heart, hand in hand. What does language matter? A sympathetic silence."

"Jerry," according to the police who examined Rosier's effects, was the nickname for Miss Mildred Geraldine Rosier, Rosier's stenographer. The diary was the same in which Rosier, a few minutes before he died, signed a will disinheriting his wife, Mrs. Catherine Rosier, and her infant, and left all his property to his eight-year-old son by a former marriage and to Rosier's brother Arthur.

It developed at the hearing that when Mrs. Rosier went to her husband's office Saturday afternoon she carried a small vial of poison. "This would indicate," said John K. Scott, her attorney, "that Mrs. Rosier intended to kill herself and that it was only under the emotional degeneration of the moment that she shot and killed her husband and his companion."

TWENTY-FOUR HURT IN COASTING CRASHES

Many Suffer Broken Bones as Sledders Upset in New Britain.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., Jan. 24.—A large double ripper collided with a coal train on Kelley Street and Edward Buchanan, thirty, and Eugene Olson, fifteen, suffered broken legs and fifteen others on the sled were cut and bruised. Chief M. Leonard, forty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Leonard of Chelton Road, suffered lacerations of the face when her sled ran into a barbed wire fence, and is at the General Hospital. Wheeler, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Warren Wheeler, Dennison Hoffman, Wells Adams and three other Wethersfield boys suffered broken bones or cuts when their double ripper was steered to one side in an effort to avoid collision with a bakery truck.

FILIPINO FLAG IS EQUAL.

MANILA, P. I., Jan. 24.—The American and Filipino flags must be accorded the same respect, but any attempt to subordinate the American flag to any other borders on treason, Gov.

Gen. Wood today wrote to a number of Sultans, Datus and constabulary officers in Sulu and Mindanao. The Governor's letter was occasioned by information from constabulary officers in those provinces that some Moros have manifested opposition to the use and display of the Filipino flag.

The man who wouldn't choke his car with gas

"I KNOW how to regulate the feed of gas to my car. Believe me, I know what happens if she gets too much gas an' too little air. She chokes on the hills, an' knocks. Carbon gets in the cylinders an' on the spark plugs. The engine loses power. Oh, I tell you, you can't be too careful how you feed gas to a car."

And then, ten minutes later, he said to the waiter in the restaurant:

"Gimme some oysters an' soup. I guess I'll have roast beef rare, mashed potatoes, beans, fried eggplant. No salad, but a piece o' mince pie—hot—an' a cup o' coffee. No! Bring me a pot o' coffee. One cup isn't enough."

He wouldn't give his car an improper mixture of gas and air, yet never once did he consider the mixture of food he was putting into his body.

His digestive organs, delicate yet strong, accept the abuse day after day, meal after meal. Some day even they will protest. The time will come when Nature can do no more, and she will compel him to stop eating too much heavy food or the wrong mixtures.

Then he will consider food. Then, under the doctor's orders, he will drink milk and hope that it will restore his shattered digestive system. And if milk won't, no other food will.

It is absurd that a man should think more of his car than of his body. It is surprising that any of us refuse to drink as much milk as is good for us until the time comes when we have to drink milk.

Perhaps if our bodies "choked on the hills and knocked" in warning when we over-fed, we would be more careful.

Drink milk now—a quart a day is little enough.

PICTURE those cold mornings, that big appetite, and the piled up plate of piping hot pancakes. It's long ago, but somehow one never forgets how good those cakes tasted.

Grandma knew what was best. She used Heckers' Old Homestead Pancake Mixture, the perfect blend of wheat, corn and rice flours with sugar, salt and leavening—all in just the right proportions.

Old Homestead is made today in the same good old way from the original formula, and has all the old-time flavor of childhood memory.

All ready for the griddle when you add water. Always the same, and always good.
